The strategies will (mark all that apply)

- Provide opportunities for all children, including subgroups of students, to meet the challenging Missouri Learning Standards.

Description of how strategy/strategies will provide

Supplemental instruction will be provided to all needed children to support them in mastering the Missouri Learning Standards. Pull out and push in instruction will offer needed support in mastery of objectives. With small group instruction, developing basic skills to master more completed concepts will be a focus.

- Use methods and instructional strategies that strengthen the academic program in the school.

Description of how strategy/strategies will strengthen

A wide variety of instructional strategies are used with the Title program and catered to meet the need of individual student learners. Working with smaller groups of students allows for personalized learning and teaching. Hands-on activities, computer aided instruction, games, small group instruction, modeling and student led instruction are a few of the researched based strategies that are used to strengthen the academic program in the school.

- Increase the amount of learning time

- Extended school year
- Before-and/or after-school programs

Bunker Elementary offers a Schoolwide Title I Program. The schoolwide program addresses the needs of all children, particularly those at risk of not meeting the Missouri Learning Standards through tiered, differentiated instruction.

All Kindergarten through 5th grade students receive core instruction, as well as differentiated, small group instruction during their Reading and Math period. In addition, identified at-risk students are given additional instruction in reading and math in small-group (4-5 students) pull out settings for 30 minutes a day, 3-5 days a week depending upon need. Students are pulled out of the science/social studies literacy period during small group instructional time to alleviate missing CORE instruction. Fountas and Pinnell Leveled Literacy Intervention System and classroom assessments are used as the basis for instructional support, assessment, and progress monitoring.
